NARBERTH, PA., SATURDAY, AUGUST 30, 1924

PRICE THREE CENTS

Your Last Chance To Register

Assessor on Duty September 2nd and 3rd

Are you registered? If you are not sure, see the assessor next Tuesday or Wednesday. Mrs. Abbie W. Nickerson, assessor, or an assistant, will be at Elm Hall on these days to record the facts.

Dates—September 2 and 3.
Place—Elm Hall.
Hours—10.00 A. M. to 3 P. M.
7.00 P. M. to 9.00 P. M.

If you are in doubt as to your registration go to the polls at this time or phone Narberth 1250.

In an effort to greatly increase Pennsylvania's vote in the coming Presidential election, the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters has inaugurated a "Get-Out-the-Vote Campaign," which is expected to result in the addition of at least half a million votes over that cast at the last Presidential election in this State.

First and foremost, it is pointed out, are the registration days, as the vote cannot be increased without first increasing registration. In boroughs and townships assessors will sit to enroll voters on Tuesday, September 2, and Wednesday, September 3. Voters should make sure before these dates that they are properly assessed.

After September 3 there will be no other opportunity to register before the November election.

The election will be held on Tuesday, November 4, and all polling places will be open from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M. standard time.

We have to choose a President and Vice President of the United States, Congressmen from every Congressional district, members of the General Assembly from every district, and State Senators from the odd-numbered districts. In addition we vote for Judge of the Superior Court, Auditor General and State Treasurer.

This means that we are to elect the men who will make the laws both at Washington and at Harrisburg, and that it is every citizen's duty to use his ballot to make sure that none but competent and reliable and patriotic candidates are elected.

The man or woman qualified to vote who neglects to do so is simply surrendering the right of self-government, and consenting to let others exercise his citizenship, perhaps contrary to his interests. Everyone should perform his duty on election day, and to do it he must first be registered.

A voter must be 21 years old by the day of election. It is necessary to be assessed at least two months before the election, and to have paid a State or county tax within two years. Payment of tax for voting purposes must be made at least one month before the date of the election, which means not later than October 4.

The voter who lives in a borough or township is entitled to vote without personal registration if he has paid tax within two years. If it is shown that he has not resided in the election district in which he intends to vote for two months immediately preceding the election, he may be challenged for non-residence. A challenge can be avoided by calling upon the assessor to be assessed on or before September 2 and 3. Or on September 2 or 3 he can find the assessor at the polling place from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. and from 7 P. M. to 9 P. M.

Boy Scouts' Notice.

The Scout Committee would like to have the Narberth Scouts in the "Defense Day" parade in Philadelphia on September 12, and request all Scouts desiring to parade to report at the Scout House on Tuesday evening, September 2 at 7.45 P. M.

Those who have drums or bugles please bring them. Many troops of scouts will be in line on September 12 and we want as large a turnout for Narberth as possible. There will be two drill nights before the parade.

The Scout Committee will meet September 3 at 7.45 P. M. and will be glad to see any fathers of the boys who would like to attend the meeting.

BASED ON OLD BOOKS

Inquiries have been received by Mrs. Abbie W. Nickerson, assessor, asking the basis on which the tax bills for the current year have been computed.

In many cases taxpayers who have called attention to various inequalities of assessment have been surprised to find no change.

This is due to the fact that the bills now being sent out by Tax Collector Raymond C. Jones are based on the assessors' books of 1923. Mrs. Nickerson explains that she has not even seen a real estate assessor's book of Narberth since her election, and that she will not make her first assessment until this fall.

With regard to corrections to the list, Mrs. Nickerson says, "Many have been kind enough to inform me of mistakes made, and I shall carefully keep a record of such mistakes, and when I receive my books from Norristown, I shall see that such mistakes are corrected."

"I am very willing to correct any errors that I have made or shall make, but mistakes in your property taxes for this year are not from my books, as I have not as yet received them."

Mrs. Nickerson has been away for a large part of the summer, but states that she can always be reached through the Narberth Post Office if information or corrections are desired.

The Legionnaire Discourses on Shins.

Dear Pete:

Oh! where has my "lima bean"? No, old timer, I didn't forget you, but such calamities (to the bank-rolls) as vacations do happen to we slaves. Then your answers to my letters coming as often as never, made me "suspicious" that you didn't love me any more. But, Pete, one of the best fellows you ever clapped paws with has been reading these letters (aside from your self) and as a result thereof, he walked in to the meeting on Monday night escorted by the Post fat man, Ross, and joined up. Lukewarm Fish! I'll write as many letters as there are Jews in New York if it brings in a few more regular fellows like this.

Then, Pete, we have another specimen of good fellowship in our midst. Right out of the wilds of Connecticut comes one of the world's champion Legionnaires and gets himself finger-printed in to the Post. You ought to meet this man, Larmett. The first hundred men out at the next meeting will be accorded that privilege.

Here's something that will give you a kick. I don't want to delve too deep into the geography of the human body, but you know that everytime you hear the word "kick," you either think of boot-leg whiskey or that part of the lower limb known as the Shin(n). Well, in this case it's the latter with the joy creating features of the former. Several months ago a certain Shinn had a kick, and the pain was very great (to the Post), but like another great George, Shinn was big enough to forget his kick and has returned to the Post. Now all Narberth knows that the Legion minstrel show to be held next October will be a riot of fun, humor, entertainment, pleasure and other forms of enjoyment.

Pete, if you weren't at the meeting on Monday, ask some one about the Dunne-Mowrer mix-up at the Convention—it's good. Of course, if you stay away from meetings you deserve to miss the fun.

Yours till Niagara Falls
AL E. RABBIT.

P. S.—The style at the next meeting will be to WEAR A NEW MEMBER.

Peach Festival.

The young people of the Methodist Church are all set for their Peach Festival, which is to be held next Friday from 6.30 to 9.30 P. M.

Judging from the success of their play, this affair ought to be worth looking into, and the price, 35 cents, is certainly no handicap.

Closed.

Narberth's three real estate offices—Robert J. Nash, John A. Caldwell and E. H. Hartzell—will be closed from Saturday noon to Monday night, over the Labor Day holidays.

ANOTHER OLD-TIMER DOING DAMAGE

By H. G. Mattoon.

Scale insects in general are doing an unusual amount of damage this year. San Jose is appearing in increasing numbers in many orchards; Oyster Shell is much more plentiful than usual; the Pubescent Oak Kermes is disfiguring many old White Oaks; but the one that is causing the greatest loss of trees and shrubs in an old-timer which has always been looked upon as comparatively harmless.

Putnam's Scale, for this is its name, is a native scale which is not at all fussy as to the species of plants it lives upon. It has been found upon apple trees, plum, horse chestnut, buckeye, dogwood, lilac, holly, sugar, Norway and red maple, linden and Hawthorn.

It seems to do the greatest amount of damage on plum, dogwood, horse chestnut and linden. The writer has found a number either killed or so weakened that it is doubtful that they will recover.

It is a small gray-white scale which on cursory glance might possibly be taken for San Jose, yet they are not at all alike when closely examined. Putnam's Scale varies considerably in size—some of the scale-like protections being a little larger than the head of a pin, while others are so minute they can with difficulty be seen with the naked eye.

The insect is red-orange in color when young, changing to a bright orange, but the protective substance under which it lives is gray-white. This covering may be lifted with the point of a knife, showing the orange insect beneath.

They work in much more compact colonies than San Jose scale, starting on the underside of two and three-year growth. On upright branches they first congregate at the base of the nodes. On horse chestnut and plum they attack wood of any age and are first noticed as a light gray patch about one-quarter inch in diameter distributed rather evenly over the tree. Later these patches enlarge until the whole tree is covered.

This scale winters over as an adult. There is but one brood a year which starts hatching from the first to the fifteenth of June and continues from six to eight weeks.

Summer spraying is not satisfactory because of the extended hatching period. A strong dormant spray in the fall of miscible oil at one to ten strength is usually effective. However, when the tree or shrub is badly infested the scale will be found in masses two and three deep. In such cases scraping and washing with the spray will be necessary.

Clothing Needed.

The Women's Community Club is making special efforts at this time to secure sufficient old clothing to complete a large box to be sent to the Crosnoe School.

The collection of the garments is in charge of Mrs. George N. Gill, who reports that three-fourths of the box is filled. Anyone who can help is asked to get in touch with her.

Automobile Accident.

The car driven by Reuben Solomon and owned by his brother, Isaac, ran into the car of Miss Mildred S. Smith, of Narberth, at the corner of Montgomery and Bala avenue, Cynwyd, on Sunday afternoon. The Smith car was upset and the mother of Miss Smith painfully injured. Solomon was held for a further hearing by Magistrate Arthur.

Staff Meeting Omitted.

The members of the staff of the Community Library meet regularly on the first Monday of the month to discuss library methods and library problems. Owing to the holiday, the meeting which would have been held September first, will be omitted for the month.

Invitations Issued.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Entenmann for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Dorothea Harsch, and Mr. James Donald Ivar Wood. The ceremony will take place on Saturday, September 6, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Ardmore.

Date for Opening of School Announced

Local Grades and L. M. Open September 8th

An announcement which will bring joy to Narberth's younger generation was made this week—both the local schools and the Lower Merion High School will open on Monday, September 8.

The list of teachers for the Narberth schools was published some weeks ago, and those who will teach our high school pupils are listed below.

Several changes in the buildings have been made. The most important are the opening of a new room and the establishment of a special room for the library.

Principal George H. Wilson, who has been spending the summer at his cottage at Sagamore Beach, Mass., will return in about a week.

The official announcement of the opening of the schools in the Lower Merion district was made yesterday by Superintendent Downs.

The notice follows:
The Lower Merion public, elementary and high schools will open for the 1924-25 term Tuesday morning, September 9.

Transportation service during the first week will be continued on last year's schedule.

High school students who have secured qualified tutors and have completed the review work required for removal of conditions should report at the office of the superintendent in the senior high school building during the first week of September and submit their records. Tests will be given September 10 and 11. All new pupils who desire to take tests to enter the junior or senior high school should also report to the superintendent next week and submit all records, including certificates of successful vaccination.

All children entitled to enroll in the elementary school should report to the principal of their building Tuesday morning, September 9. All who enroll for the first time must present certificates of successful vaccination.

Children may be admitted to the first grade provided they will be six years of age prior to April 1, 1925, but beginners cannot enter later than September 30.

First grade pupils from the north side of Ardmore and Wynnewood will be enrolled in the junior high school building. If sufficient second grade children from this district enter the schools an additional room will be opened in the junior high school.

All citizens who desire to furnish rooms, apartments or boarding to teachers should submit to the superintendent detailed information in writing prior to September 4.

S. E. DOWNS,
Superintendent.

At the same time Superintendent Downs issued the list of teachers and their assignments for the whole township system. The high school faculty is given herewith:

A TREELESS NARBERTH?

Much of Narberth's beauty as a suburban town is dependent upon the rows of splendid trees which line its streets. We are devoid of fine architecture, save in a few spots; we lack boulevards and estates.

But for years the rows of Norway, Silver and Red maples, the great elms, the oaks, more recently the ginkgos and sycamores, have given to our town a sylvan beauty which no art of the builder could approach.

A few years ago a Shade Tree Commission was formed by Council to protect the trees within ten feet of the curb line. More or less intermittently this body has functioned, and from time to time they have made improvements or added
new rows of trees.

The function of this body is to supply a legal club to apply to a small element in our community, who feel that trees are "useless things which keep the bright sunlight off our porch and drop their leaves in the fall."

But the Shade Tree Commission has power only over the highway trees. Let a tree be ten feet, one and seven-eighths inches from the curb line and it may be butchered, be-headed or chopped down to suit
the whim of the owner.

This is most unfortunate, but a man has a legal right to do as he will with his own property, so long as he does not become a menace to peace or health. The fate of Nar-berth's beauty beyond the ten-foot dead line is a matter of community pride; of love of beauty; of consideration for one's neighbors.

Occasionally a resident thinks that a hedge, a stone wall, or a fence will be far more suitable to his taste than a few 30-year-old trees, and down come the trees. A long row of maples or elms is broken, and the ugliness of the street increases in proportion.

Two cases are in point—one in Narberth and one in Ardmore. In Ardmore the Commissioners decided to widen Cricket avenue two and one-half feet. An improvement certainly, but not a necessity. A row of magnificent old maples stood in the way, but that did not matter. Residents who protested were "standing in the way of progress." Saws, axes and ropes are at work—upturned roots and piled branches are covering lawns formerly shaded.

In Narberth this week three old maples were ripped up from the front lawn of a property. Neighbors protested; called in the borough authorities. The distance from the curb was measured, and found to be a few inches over the dead-line. Another gap in Nar-berth's sylvan beauty was made.

A house or a wall may be built in days or weeks; a tree takes years. Few improvements justify tree destruction—a whim never does. Those of us who dislike shade—and there are sowers, should seek the terraced, bare rows of
"ideal homes" in new Overbrook, and leave the suburbs for those who like growing things.

It is hopeless to try to prevent altogether the invasion of Nar-berth by city influence and city building, but the struggle is worth while. The zoning ordinance is a big step. A little respect for trees is another.

FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE

In considering the proper exercises for Defense Day and what we shall do to help make the rally a success, let us not neglect, in any celebration, to properly emphasize the very important "means of defense" that lies within the power of each and every one of us to employ for the protection of our country.

Fundamentally, the vote is of equal importance with the army and navy, for upon the votes of its citizens depends the well-being of this nation. Ideals are determined, policies are shaped, credit or discredit is reflected upon this great land of ours by the votes that are cast.

Would you defend the principles upon which this nation was founded?

Would you give proof to your belief that "all power is inherent in the people?"

Would you have your country
"the home of the brave and the land of the free?"

Then register on September 2 or 3, at the polling place of your voting district, and vote in the November election!

LABOR DAY

The first Labor day observance occurred in the State of New York in 1882. The day was made a national holiday in 1894. The labor movement has made great progress since that time. At that period most American workers were employed on a 10-hour day basis. Many of them worked much longer hours.
Today the eight-hour day has become the general standard of industry. Wages must on an average be three or four times as high as they were at that time.

At that period the prevailing thought was to secure for the working masses a fair share of the country's product and more healthful working conditions in factories and shops. The need for action along the latter line was specially emphatic.

Many young people were laboring under the most unsanitary conditions, which broke their health at an early age when their unformed bodies were unfitted to stand the strain. Long hours of labor ended

BOARD POLICY APPROVED

To the Editor of "Our Town."

The financial statement of the School District which was printed in your last issue was a big step in the right direction. The School Board is to be congratulated on the change of policy which is indicated by the publication of this detailed report to the citizens. A policy of complete publicity would bring the members of the School Board and a majority of the citizens into a state of mutual understanding which would be highly desirable. Members of the Board have in the past frequently felt that the general feeling of hostility and opposition toward them was unjust and was an indication that their really conscientious services were not appreciated nor understood. Complete publicity is the cure for this condition.

All citizens who have paid their taxes on time will, of course, have been impressed by the revelation in the School District report that there must have been a considerable number of delinquents and undoubtedly the sum of $117,80, which is labeled "exonerations" should be further explained for the benefit of those faithful citizens who pay their taxes on time and who assume that everyone else does the same.

It is to be hoped that similar reports, complete in detail, can be rendered to the citizens by the Borough authorities, especially a complete statement in reference to uncollected taxes now in arrears.

—CITIZEN

(Editor's Note:—As a matter of fact, "Citizen," the publication of the financial statement is an annual feast with the School Board.

That body is, we believe, following a policy of complete publicity, for when the Editor is unable to report a meeting personally, a full account is submitted by the Secretary.

And as to the "exonerations," an explanation is no doubt due. The taxes are compiled from a "tax duplicate" sent by the county authorities to Mr. Jones. He must base his bills on this book, which is in turn based on the assessments.

As we all know, the assessments are inaccurate, and have been worse in the past. Names are left on the lists of persons long dead or removed from the borough. Other levies are made which it is impossible to collect.

The Tax Collector is supposed to make every effort to collect each account, resorting to suit if necessary. In the case of deceased or removed persons, or accounts he can prove uncollectable, he prepares a list, called the "exoneration list."

The total of this list is subtracted from the total tax as shown by the duplicate, and the collector is held responsible for all remaining. In the case of both Borough Council and the School Board, the exoneration list is gone over "with a fine-tooth comb" before it is granted, and often accounts considered collectible are not granted.)

CONDITION IS SERIOUS

Second Blood Transfusion for Wounded Officer.

Policeman Francis X. Roy, of the Lower Merion township force, who was wounded July 3 while breaking up a Ku Klux Klan demonstration near Haverford College farms, was reported to be in a serious condition yesterday at the Bryn Mawr Hospital.

Roy, several days ago, submitted to his second transfusion operation. Captain Wallace M. Stryker, of Cricket avenue, Ardmore, from whom blood was taken for the first operation, also gave blood in the second transfusion.

Roy's condition improved slightly late yesterday afternoon, it was said at the hospital, but physicians indicated it is still serious. One of his legs was amputated about a week after he was admitted to the hospital.

Roy was shot in the foot and in the right hip. Four Ardmore men were arrested in connection with the shooting less than a week later.

Policeman Albert Miller, who accompanied Roy at the time of the shooting, was wounded in the right leg, but rapidly recovered and returned to duty.

Still Healthy.

Another good health record for Lower Merion township is shown in the weekly report. Only four cases of contagious disease were reported last week, three of mumps and one of measles.

TIMELY INFORMATION

Nearly Twenty-five Magazines Available at Library.

The magazine reading table at the Community Library is a part of the library work which has not been frequently mentioned in print, but which has demonstrated a capacity to serve a large number of people, both men and women, in proportion as the number of magazines has increased. No charge is made for the use of the magazines which, however, are not usually taken from the library. The reading table is now in constant use and it has been shown that magazines on almost any subject are useful.

It will be seen from the list of magazines below that the reading table serves as a source of information on many important subjects as much as a means of reading fiction or entertainment. Some of the magazines are bought by the Library, but a large number of them are contributed by people who have become interested in the Library. Any person who is willing to contribute any worth while magazines, not now on the list, will be benefiting many people for whom that magazine is not now available.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wood Shelton, of Wynnewood avenue, recently contributed a year's subscription to "Progressive Education," which is a substantial publication of interest and value, not only to professional educators, but also to all parents, who are seriously concerned with the education of their children.

A new weekly publication called "Time," which has been issued only about a year and which has shown a remarkable growth, because of the capable manner in which it handles current events, is now available at the Library. The complete list of magazines at the Library follows: Asia, Progressive Education, Bulletin of Penna. League of Women Voters, Printers' Ink Monthly, National Business, Industry Illustrated, Collier's Weekly, Outlook, Saturday Evening Post, Pictorial Review, Woman's Home Companion, Ladies' Home Journal, Time, Literary Review, Popular Magazine, Literary Digest, Association Monthly, John Martin's Book, St. Nicholas, American Book Notes, Penna. News, International Studies, National Geographic.

Some Kicker!

A Pennsylvania street car company recently announced in the advertising columns of the local newspapers that the fare per ride on the company's lines would be reduced from 8 cents to 7 cents.

In response the company received a letter of protest from a merchant living in the outskirts of the town. The communication was especially remarkable because the merchant was renowned for his thrift. In fact, he was known as the city's hardest-boiled egg.

The president of the street car company wrote to him seeking a reason for the man's objection to a fare reduction. The reply of the merchant contained the following:

"I walk 10 squares to my office and 10 squares back to my home every day. Thereby I save 16 cents. If you reduce the street car fare I shall save only 14 cents a day."

His idea of giving until it hurt was to purchase just one Christmas seal. Even then he expected a trained seal.

Sign of Early Fall.

Thousands of birds are seen daily in this section winging their way southward three weeks earlier than when their migration is usually noticed. Their flight is regarded as a sure sign of early autumn.

The chattering of thousands of birds as they pause in their flight is also causing comment in other towns. The weather prophets predict another hot spell which will ripen crops before frost.

Victory Over Oakmont Gives Narberth Lead.

Vernon Fleck was the brilliant mound-man in Narberth's 4 to 1 victory over Oakmont last Saturday. Fleck allowed but two singles, while his team-mates collected six hits for a total of 13 bases.

Charlie Humphries nailed the first circuit clout of the playground, while Harvey Humphries and Vernon Fleck each tallied a triple.

Fans declared it to be the best game seen in Narberth this season.

Eppa Yowell started things going with a one-handed catch in left field and in the same inning H. Humphries pulled Reed's hot one off the ground with his bare hand and threw him out at first. In the seventh inning C. Humphries pulled Devlin's long fly out of the air with his bare hand. He caught up to the bat, the first man in the eighth, and crashed one to Windsor avenue for a home run. Lew Albany, the old-timer of Oakmont, pitched fine ball until the eighth, when our boys started to hit and hit hard, getting four safe hits and a walk for four runs. That was Lew's finish for the day.

Ashland Beaten.

Narberth trounced the fast Ashland Club of Manayunk, 9 to 7, in the Wednesday twilight game. Harvey Humphries was on the mound.

Things looked bad in the third, when Dickie let three go through him for errors, which helped the visitors to get three tallies.

But when Narberth came to bat they collected three safe hits and a walk for three runs, which made things look better.

In the fourth inning Balb started off with a single, H. Humphries a double, C. Humphries a walk and Yowell connected for a two-bagger. This cleaned the bases and G. Fleck's two-bagger brought in Yowell. This put the Walzerites in the lead, 7 to 4. In the fifth inning the visitors came across with two more runs and Narberth had to go to work. The Boroughtites got three safe hits and two runs in the seventh inning, while Ashland got another, making the score 9 to 7.

Yowell and C. Humphries were the real hitters, each batting 1.000—not so bad. Gibson also connected for a double and a single. McFarland, Ashland's third base man, was the heavy hitter for the visitors, getting three safe hits out of four times at bat.

OPPOSES NEW HOSPITAL

County Controller William C. Irvin has demanded that the County Commissioners abandon their plan to build a Montgomery Tuberculosis Hospital at an estimated cost of $200,000. Curiously, the voters who in 1921 by an overwhelmingly majority approved the construction of the hospital (which was never begun) are now said to be supporting the controller in his opposition to it.

Mr. Irvin is a stickler for economical administration and cheerfully risks unpopularity to gain his point. Last winter, immediately after assuming office, he vigorously opposed an increase in the county tax rate, but the Commissioners added a mill in spite of his opposition. At that time public sentiment was against the Controller because the Commissioners were forced to assume and carry out many pledges made by their predecessors, involving highway and bridge work.

Mr. Irvin has consistently opposed the county tuberculosis hospital, despite authorization by the voters for its construction. He has claimed that several hundred thousand dollars expense would be involved in the purchase of a site and the construction of the institution without providing for maintenance. He has been met with arguments that the county authorities are obligated to provide for the care of tubercular persons, regardless of the expense.

This week the Controller swept away all the strength of his opponents' arguments when he announced the result of a conference with Dr. A. J. Cohen, head of the Eagleville Sanatorium. Arrangements could be made, he said, to have county tubercular patients cared for at that institution. In fact, Mr. Irvin stated, sanatorium officials were very anxious to enter into such an agreement.

The Eagleville institution receives State aid and is particularly well equipped to handle tubercular cases. The Controller, therefore, recommended that plans for building the hospital be set aside and an agreement entered into with the Eagleville authorities which would take care of all the cases which might require attention for years to come.
